

May 2024 CAA Minutes

Jean welcomed us all to the May meeting of the CAA. She thanked everyone for the support she has received during her tenure. Paula Ortgiesen will be taking over in September.

Congratulations to Judy Harris and Cindy Parris for their recent sales!!

Our end of year party will be at the Perkinson Center. Members are asked to bring something to share. Last names beginning with A-M are asked to bring an appetizer or side dish. Last names beginning with N-Z are asked to bring a dessert. Jean and Sarah will provide Ham biscuits. The date is June 14th at 10am.

Our Treasurer reports a balance of $2923.45 in our account.

Pat McNamara reported all is going well at Crossroads. Crossroads will be having their 22nd anniversary opening next Friday, the 17th. If you want to change your work, try to do so before then. Our next term begins July 1st. All members exhibiting were asked to meet there on June 28th to change out their work. Rent will go up next year. The new amount will be $125.00 for a three month period. A discussion was held regarding adding electricity for Sally's lamps, and changing the wall color. It was decided that we will pay for an adapter and Sally will provide the cord.

Paula told the group about an opportunity to exhibit at the 1st Presbyterian Church. More information will be forthcoming.

Bill Draper is having a call for entries 'Camera to canvas'. The show will be held in collaboration with the James River Park System. Artists will paint one of his photos. All proceeds will benefit the James River Park System.

The CAA will be assisting in hanging the upcoming show at the Perkinson Center. If interested in helping please be at the center on June 5th. Time will be forthcoming.

Heig Darakjian gave the group a talk regarding an exhibiting opportunity at the Crossing at Iornbridge Assisted living facilities. The facility would be interested in showing our work in the August-September time period. The group agreed that we would be interested. He will get more information in regards to what would need to be done and we will revisit the proposal.

Today's program was presented by Donna Frostick. She gave us a wonderful presentation of her work through the years and lots of information on Artspace. Thank you Donna!!

Until next year, Happy creating everyone!!
